SPHE

Let's start a "Gratitude Jar"

- Discuss the meaning of gratitude.
- Discuss things you are grateful for and write those ideas on pieces of paper. You can draw pictures, too.
- When ready, fill a jar with gratitude. Any jar will do ... but you could make the jar really nice by writing on it or adding stickers and glitter if you like.
- You can start with just ten notes and make a habit of adding a few more each week as a family. It's a wonderful habit, and you can pause and read them all on Mondays to brighten up your week.
- (Please seesaw for ideas)
