S.E.S.E. (History, Geography and Science)

- What are all the different types of transport you can name?
- Sort them into categories - Which are for travelling on land (car, truck, bike, van etc.)? Which are for travelling through the air (rocket, hot air balloon, plane etc.)? Which are for travelling through water (boat, submarine, ferry etc.)?
- This link will help with sorting your vehicles into categories

- Make a ramp or a bridge for your toy cars/tractors/trucks. What makes the vehicle go down a ramp faster?
- Force - for an object to move it needs a force - a push or a pull. How does your toy car move? Do you push it? Do you push the pedals on your bike? If you have a toy on a string do you push or pull it? Does your toy car go down the ramp faster if you push it?

Religion Story : Welcomed with Water

Where can it be found? How can it be used? Then read the story, 'Welcomed with Water'.

'Welcomed with Water'

'Mummy, where's Billie?' said Niamh.
'Billie the bear?' whispered Mummy.
'I don't know, sweetheart, where did you last have him?' Niamh said.

It's ok, said Dad, softly. He's right here, Niamh.
Niamh smiled. 'Thanks Daddy!' she said. Mummy, Daddy and Niamh were all sitting in the front row of the church with Auntie Julie and Uncle Ray. Niamh's new baby sister, Lucy, was asleep in Mummy's arms. Father José, the priest, was talking to them.

'What name do you give your child?' he asked. Niamh turned Billie around to face the front of the church, so he could see what was going on. 'I picked her name, you know!' she whispered to the bear.

Father José then said, 'I now trace the cross on your forehead, and invite your parents and godparents to do the same.' Mummy, Daddy, Auntie Julie and Uncle Ray traced a cross on Lucy's head using their finger. Lucy squirmed a little.

Niamh kept whispering into Billie's ear. 'Father José is really nice,' she said. 'He tells good stories and funny jokes.'

'And there's Mary,' she continued, pointing to the statue in the corner. 'She's a mummy too. Her baby's name was ...'

'Niamh?' said Fr José.
Niamh looked up. Mummy, Daddy, Auntie Julie and Uncle Ray were walking away. 'It's time to welcome Lucy into God's family ... Are you ready?'

Niamh nodded. 'C'mon Billie,' she said, jumping down off the seat.
Niamh listened as Fr José asked Mummy, Daddy, Auntie Julie and Uncle Ray some questions about Lucy. Then Mummy walked over to the big font, and held Lucy over it. 'What's going on?' asked Niamh.

'Watch!' said Daddy.
'Billie! Watch!' said Niamh, turning her teddy around.

'Lucy Smith,' said Fr José. 'I baptise you in the name of the Father ...'
Niamh watched as Fr José poured water on Lucy's head, before he continued, 'And of the Son ...'

'And of the Holy Spirit,' whispered Niamh. 'And of the Holy Spirit,' said Fr José.
Everybody clapped. They were happy for Niamh, and for Mummy and Daddy, and especially for Lucy.

'Welcome to our family, Lucy,' said Fr José. 'Welcome to the family of God and to the family of the church.'

Teacher Tip:

The children may remember Niamh, Lucy and their family from Theme 1 (My Family) and Theme 3 (Advent and Christmas).
