Hello everyone,

I hope you're all well this week and you enjoyed the long weekend. Miss O' Brien filled me in on all the brilliant work you did last week so well done.

Below, is a list of work for each day this week. Try your best as always to complete as much of it as you can, but don't feel under pressure to complete all of it. I will post an art activity on Friday. Any extra activities will be posted on Seesaw and are totally optional, maybe for when you're finished early or want a distraction. All of the links you will need are included, and if you have any questions you can ask me on Seesaw.

Take care everyone and stay safe and well.

Mrs. Kelly
