Fun Activities

- Read a book or listen to one being read (Storynory online can be useful) every day and tell someone in your family what happened in it. Maybe you can phone a grandparent. I'm sure they would love to hear all about it.
- If you are lucky enough to get to walk on the beach don't forget to collect shells. These can be used to make a beautiful picture frame when you get home.
- Be sure to spend plenty of time cycling your bike.
- Have a teddy bear picnic! Gather all your cuddly friends and take them on an exciting adventure.
- Using some chunky chalk, do some drawings on your footpaths or garage wall. The next time it rains it will disappear!
- If you are up a little later than usual, spend some time looking up at the stars from your backyard. Can you count them all?? If the weather is nice you might like to take out a blanket and lie down to get a great view of them. It is like you are camping!
- I love water activities!! Try water balloons, water guns, water bag pinata (I love the sound of this one!!), sponge tag or a water bucket relay. I know it will make a mess but the memories made will be worth it.
- Keep an eye on your recycling bin. Could you make a milk carton boat? A mini golf course with toilet rolls? A bird feeder? Bowling with toilet rolls? What else can you come up with?
- Paint some rocks and help with the gardening. Think of all the colours you could use.
- Build a fort or a tree house!
- Play balloon tennis.
- Blow bubbles.
- Play with a frisbee.
- Learn a new song and sing every day.
- Help write the shopping list.
- Learn your parents' phone number.
- Help with the cooking and baking but only with an adult.
- Help tidy your toys and bedroom.
- Help to wash the car.
- Hang the washing out on the line and count how many clothes pegs you had to use.

POEM

'Thank you, God, for Summertime'

Introduce the poem below to the children. They can repeat each line after you. Use actions as appropriate.

Thank You, God, for Summertime

Thank you, God, for summertime (Praying hands)
With sunshine bright all day (Arms raised pointed to the sky)
Because the days are longer (Bring arms down slowly)
We've got lots of time to play. (Jump)

Thank you, God, for summertime (Praying hands)
For summer, sand and sea (Make waves using hands, arms)
For picnic and for ice-cream (Make eating gestures)
And most of all for me! (Point to self with both hands)

Religion Song :

Summertime

Text: Helen Geoghegan
Music: Patricia Hegarty

Capo 2:

Here's the sun - shine, it's sum - mer - time.

Clap your hands, it's sum - mer at last!

1. Thank you God for the sum - mer time with sun - shine bright all day. Be - cause we get our hol - i - days we've lots of time to play!

2. Thank you, God, for summertime
For sunshine, sand and sea
For ice-cream and for lemonade
But most of all, for me!
